

GALLAUDET STRONG DESPITE CHANGES

The Gallaudet College baseball team plays Washington College at Chestertown, Md., today.

The team will be minus the services of Sharp and Harper, the two regular outfielders, who will be detained by examinations. Craven who showed up strong against Central High yesterday, and one of the pitchers will take their places. The Kendall Green boys showed a decided slump in the field against Georgetown, but have apparently returned to form in practice since.

Captain Cooper is not up to his usual standard in fielding this spring, but is hitting the ball with his old time consistency.

The Kendall Green team is confident of winning at Chestertown. They are especially strong in the box this year, with Birch, O'Donnell, and Dillon, the southpaw, all working in good form.
